Preliminary Amendment Acknowledgement

Receipt is acknowledged of preliminary amendments filed on 5-17-05 and 8-30-06.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-41 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-33 of copending Application No. 10/766,889. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-41 of present application are broad enough to read on claims 1-33 of above application.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, 14, 34, and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Otsuki (US 5,283,779, cited by applicant).

Otsuki disclose an optical disk which comprises a plurality of areas (RZ, CTZ, GB1, etc.) as shown in Fig 3. There is at least one transition area (TZ), located between two adjacent areas (see Fig. 3).

With respect to claims 2-4, Otsuki discloses that data is recorded in form of pits in the areas and transition area and pits patterns are the same on every data area (Fig 3, and col. 4, lines 11-30).

With respect to claim 5, transition area in Otsuki is a mirror (see mirror zone RZ in Fig. 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2627

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6-13, 15-28, 33, 35, 37, 39, and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Otsuki (US 5,283,779, cited by applicant).

With respect to claims 6-13, Otsuki discloses all the claimed invention except to specifically show that the pits of the transition area are formed on straight single/ specific/ random pattern or wobble single/ specific/ random pattern. However, since the pits on optical recording medium could be formed in any desirable choice of forms, sizes and/or shape and can be positioned at any suitable location, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to form the pits of transition area in Otsuki medium as straight single/ specific/ random pattern or wobble single/ specific/random pattern.

With respect to claim 41, it would have been obvious to form different track pitch between adjacent areas since track pitch on optical recording medium can be lay out at any suitable position, sizes and shape.

With respect to claims 15-28, 33, 35, 37, 39, Otsuki discloses the claimed invention such as a lead-in area, a user data area, a lead out area (Fig 2), a transition area located between two adjacent areas (Fig 3), except to specifically show a burst cutting area (BCA). However, as disclosed by applicant in page 1 of the specification, application of BCA is well known in the art of optical recording and therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include a BCA in Otsuki optical recording medium.
